The Superintendent,
Central Jail, Bellary.

Sir,

My husband Late E.V.Casey joined Government Service about fifteen years back.

2/ He served Government, faithfully, for this long period both in Civil and in Military, leaving behind him, no savings for my sustinance.

3/ These are very hard days and the authorities are in know of his sudden death, after a very promising service, at the Head Quarters Hospital, Bellary on 10-7-48.

4/ I am his widow and in my stranded position, I am putting this claim for gratuity, so as to enable me to get on with my life. I am really poor and, if I am not pitied and my request ~~xxxxxx~~ not granted my fate will have to simply turn cruel.

5/ Considering the cost of living, and the lenghty period I have to live on the gratuity, the authorities may kindly be pleased to consider my pitiable circumstances and to grant me the maximum amount.

6/ For which act of kindness, I feel highly grateful.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
Cecelia Casey
